

Leading BC multi-disciplinary real estate organization receives best in Canada accolades for design, architectural quality and innovation

Adera Development Group takes home awards from the CHBA and GVHBA Award season

Vancouver, BC – May. 19, 2017 – Adera Development Group, one of BC's leading multi-disciplinary real estate organizations, is pleased to announce its recent best in Canada accolades from the Canadian Home Builder's Association (CHBA) 2017 National Awards for Housing Excellence, as well as the Greater Vancouver Home Builders' Association (GVHBA) 2017 Ovation Awards.

Adera received the Design Excellence Award, as well as two individual New Home Awards for The Shore in the Attached–Mid-To-High-Rise Condominium or Apartment Project category and the Apartment Style/Condominium Units under 1,000 square feet category. The Design Excellence Award recognizes the outstanding performance by a single builder or developer in the new home categories in all of Canada. This is the third time Adera has taken home the most prestigious prize at the National Awards.

Adera's commitment to sustainability and excellence in architectural quality, including the interior and exterior design of a new community, are what lead to this years award success.

"We are thrilled and humbled to be recognized in this years National Awards for Housing Excellence," says Eric Andreasen, Vice President of Marketing and Sales at Adera Development Group. "We are passionate about our projects and providing homeowners with the best quality homes. These awards are a reflection of this and our teams' hard work."

Adera has recently won several other awards for their development projects Prodigy and Sail at the 2017 GVHBA Ovation Awards. The Ovation Awards recognize the work of some of the best new-home, renovation, and design member companies in Metro Vancouver and were established to recognize influential and trend-setting companies such as Adera.

Adera's Prodigy project won for Best Multi-Family Lowrise Development and Sail took home the award in Excellence in Innovation and Sustainability in New Residential Construction. Adera Development Group took home the Grand Ovation Award: Multi-Family Home builder of the Year.
